

The radio station of K-LOVE is broadcasted in my community. It is the only radio station that positive and encouraging music without any commercials. I never have to worry about being offended by anything that is said or played on this station. If it is displaced, then there would not be another family friendly station to listen to.